

Before

After

This is the new wombat enclosures at Blackbutt Reserve. The Newcastle City Council needed a product to encapsulate not only the Styrofoam but the cement base and the steel beam through the centre. Apart from the coverage, the product had to be tough enough for the wombats not to destroy. The job was finished in one day in time for there grand opening.

