

Before.

After.

This truck is used for various types of work. The owner carries livestock and found that he needed to put wood and sawdust on the tray to stop them from slipping. He also carried pallets and bins from the mines. We sprayed the back in one day with Tuff Stuff, with a very coarse aggregate for slip resistance, therefore he now can use this surface for all applications.

